STORM FRONT - WEEKLY DIGEST

2016 Week 5

CADET
The Cadets kept the game close through halftime but couldn't put together a consistent drive, falling to the Saints 26-0 in front of the home crowd. The Cadets travel to Mesa to take on the undefeated Spartans this week.

JR PEE WEE
The Jr. Pee Wee team made the long drive to Williams Field to take on a well rested Dawgs Red team (won by forfeit due to the disbanding of the Firebirds Red). The Storm was the first team to score on the Dawgs, this season, unfortunately not enough, as the Dawgs took advantage of the rest and home field, dominating the Storm 48-7. The Storm may have the week off, picking up an AYF week 6 win against the Firebirds Red by forfeit.

PEE WEE and JR MIDGET
Both the Pee Wee and Jr Midget teams dominated opponents with a lot of heart and class this week. The Dark Knights and Rattlers teams were outmanned but gave their best efforts and gained valuable experience. Both coaching staffs were proud of the good sportsmanship demonstrated by the Storm players. This week, the Pee Wee team travel to Laveen to take on the Stampede, and the Jr. Midget are at home against the 4-1 Aztecs.

14U
The 14U team took on a Bears team that had not given up a point in 3 years. While they fell short, 46-31, the Storm proved they can play with the Bears, frustrating the team and sidelines throughout the contest. 14U continue their tuneup for the playoffs with a home game against the Dawgs.
